

INFORMED CONSENT AND LICENSE AGREEMENT

Permission to reprint student work

This is an Informed Consent and License Agreement between you, the author (“Author”), and 826 for material to be published in a forthcoming 826 National network book in collaboration with Common Sense Media and Scholastic or in any publication associated with 826 National, Common Sense Media, or Scholastic.

- The Author understands and consents that although participation in 826 National programs is completely voluntary, once consent to publishing the work is provided by signing this form, it cannot be withdrawn.
- This informed consent and license is non-exclusive, meaning that the Author can also publish their work in publications unaffiliated with 826 National, if they choose, even if 826 National determines to publish the work as well. Publication by another person or entity shall not have any effect on 826 National’s rights under this agreement.
- The Author understands and consents that 826 reserves the right to edit and publish the Author’s work in any manner in any publication or materials affiliated with 826 National, including in photographs, video, or audio footage of the Author’s work. 826 National and Scholastic also reserve the right to paraphrase or re-word passages during the editing process.
- The Author understands and grants 826 National the right to publish the Author’s work in all editions and versions of 826 National’s Collection or any publication associated with 826 National.
- The Author understands that 826 National may wish to consent to the publishing of excerpts of the Author’s work in newspapers, magazines, online media or other publications in order to promote a publication and/or the nonprofit work of 826 National. In such event, 826 National will provide the Author with reasonable notice of the proposed excerpt and publication, and obtain the Author’s consent to use the excerpt at that time.
- The Author understands and consents that 826 National are nonprofit organizations and will not be able to provide monetary compensation for including the Author’s material in any publication.
- The Author warrants to 826 National that they are the piece’s sole author and that they have full power to make this Agreement.

To the extent the Author’s material contains any accounts of non-fictional individuals or events, the Author represents that the information is substantially true, does not defame or slander or place in a false light any individual or group, and does not disclose private facts regarding any third party without that third party’s consent. We ask you to refrain from writing inappropriate language and about incidents that may hurt, degrade, or endanger others.

Each student whose work is published will receive a free copy of the book when it is released.
