

Position: Director/Manager of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
Location: San Francisco, CA or remote in a chapter city (see below)
$65,000 - $85,000

ABOUT 826 NATIONAL 826 National is the largest youth writing network in the United States, amplifying the impact of writing and publishing centers across the US, along with the words of thousands of young writers. We serve as an international proof point for writing as a tool for young people to ignite and channel their creativity, explore identity, advocate for themselves and their community, and achieve academic and professional success.

Our National team is a group of highly collaborative, passionate professionals dedicated to supporting our growing network of chapters and bringing the words of our students and the importance of writing to a national stage. Currently the 826 Network is in nine major US cities: Boston, Chicago, Detroit/Ann Arbor, Los Angeles, Minneapolis/St. Paul, New Orleans, New York City, San Francisco, Washington DC, with approximately 80,000 students participating in free programs provided by our chapters and National. Each chapter provides 5 core programs: After-School Tutoring, Field Trips, Workshops, Young Authors' Book Projects, and In-Schools Programs – all free of charge – for the students, teachers, and school.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The most valuable asset of our organization is our incredible staff. The 826 National Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Director/Manager will support our diverse staff of 12 and Network of 200 so they feel included, valued, and effective in their work. The ideal candidate is ready to build upon existing structures in deep commitment to scaling our diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI), recruiting, training, performance, and professional development processes. They are an excellent trainer who loves to facilitate professional development for people at various points of their career and effectively builds systems for recruitment, hiring, onboarding, and retention. This is both an internal and Network-facing role and the ideal candidate will be able to prioritize work streams, be comfortable customer-facing, and can effectively manage up and manage laterally. Our National Team is a small group of 12 staff members, whereas the Network is comprised of roughly 200 individuals, and many more volunteers. While this is an 826 National role, our work is directly in support of our Network and this role will be deeply interactive with each chapter.
